Reach the key players in the European property market

If you want to guarantee that your message will be seen by high-level property professionals throughout the European property industry, make sure that you advertise in EuroProperty, the primary publication to serve the sector.

EuroProperty has built an influential following during the last 10 years among its loyal subscription base. By advertising in EuroProperty you will reach influential property professionals who rely upon the magazine as their essential monthly briefing on the European property market. Its range of top-quality editorial makes EuroProperty the sole publication to cover news and analysis of the investment market as well as the growing property fund management sector. Country surveys and company profiles keep readers in touch with local market analysis and updated about the key individuals who are shaping the industry.

EuroProperty's coverage includes:

News - latest investments and lettings transactions from across Europe, capital raising by fund managers, company news, legal and fiscal updates.

Analysis - examining the wider impact of news stories.

Surveys - in-depth reports on major cities and the latest trends.

Company Profiles – strategy and performance of the market's major players.

Research – all of the sector's key data in one place.

Elite Supplement – profiling the most influential individuals in the industry this year.

Fund Management Supplement – an annual review of this sector, including the fund manager table which details the capabilities of more than 50 fund managers.

EuroProperty World – offers a wide-ranging view of global real estate markets, focusing on areas such as Australia, The Middle East and Asia.

The quality and depth of EuroProperty's editorial makes it a must-read publication for its high-calibre readership. In turn EuroProperty provides you with a valuable platform to advertise your company, or transactions in which it has been involved, to influential property professionals across Europe.
